

Fire Safety Self-Administered Assignment

In this assignment, you will be engaging with a variety of media sources covering fire related incidents. To promote your understanding of fire safety, you will then have the opportunity to answer a variety of questions based on this media. To complete this assignment, you must have access to the internet. As you work, feel free to explore beyond the sources that have been provided and create an educational experience that will meet your individual interests. If you happen to find any interesting links that were not mentioned here, please consider sharing them at the end of the assignment.

How to do the assignment:

There are three parts to this assignment, all of which must be completed. Work through the assignment at your own pace, taking time to explore if you so wish. However, it is expected that this assignment can be completed in just over an hour.

Part 1: Know Fire!

Check out the knowfire.ca website: www.knowfire.ca. Watch three of the videos and surf the site in order to answer the following questions.

1. What were the three videos you watched about?
2. What were your initial reactions to the short videos?
3. What did you learn from these videos about the importance of fire safety in residence?

Part 2: Fire Prevention at the University of Guelph

1. Go to <https://www.uoguelph.ca/fire/campus-fire-safety/residence>. What are five things that you can do to promote fire safety in residence?
2. Go to <https://www.uoguelph.ca/fire/campus-fire-safety/what-do-if-you-discover-fire>. What are the seven steps you should follow if you discover a fire? Also, when is it safe to reenter a building after a fire alarm?

Part 3: Final Thoughts

1. Describe the impact that this assignment has had on your views on fire safety and residence rules regarding fire violations. If it has not had an impact on you, describe why not.
2. Is there any information you learned that you feel you would pass on to other students? If so what would that advice be?
3. Are there any interesting links that you came across while completing this assignment? If there were, please consider sharing them.
