why continue on our fabulous team?

Working on Residence Life Staff (RLS) can provide you with a wealth of opportunities to learn and grow outside of the classroom. Many of our past staff have gone on to become doctors, teachers, and leaders within their community. Working as a student leader provides you with a myriad of opportunity to enhance your leadership, communication, team work and conflict resolution skills.

All of our RLS attend an exciting 10-day training program designed to fully prepare you for your role. In addition, you meet regularly with your manager and the rest of your team and work together to ensure you students get a great residence experience.

On top of that, you are guaranteed a single room in residence (for applicable positions) and receive an RLS room rate on your residence room! Not to mention the on-going training, recognition on your co-curricular transcript, and bi-weekly pay.

Residence Life offers a variety of different positions available for new staff and returning staff. For more information on our specific positions, please see Our Positions below, or speak to a member of our Residence Life Staff.
the fine print

In order to be eligible for a position on Residence Life Staff, applicants must meet the following requirements:

Full-time Student

All RLS must be a full-time undergraduate or graduate student at the University of Guelph.

Grade Average

Several RLS positions require a minimum grade average. If you are applying for a Residence Assistant, Duty Staff, Community Life Facilitator, Seminar Facilitator, or Community Standards Assistant, you must hold a minimum cumulative and semester average of 65%. If you are applying for a Cluster Leader or Programme Facilitator, you must hold a minimum cumulative and semester average of 70%.

First Aid and CPR

All RLS must obtain Emergency CPR C and First Aid that remains up to date for the duration of their contact period.

Conduct History

All RLS must be in good judicial standing on campus.

Residence Deposit

All RLS who are required to live in residence must submit their $500 residence deposit by the established deadline. RLS are required to pay the full residence and meal plan fees (if required) for the building in which they are assigned. Please note that there is a cost differential between buildings.

Criminal Reference Check and/or Vulnerability Check

Staff required to have a criminal reference check will be notified after they have been offered a position.

“I feel in love with my job on the Residence Life Staff team during training. This passion that I have for Residence Life grows everyday and I am excited to watch it continue to strengthen and spread infectiously in the future. The relationships that I have built with both students and staff members inspire me to take risks and challenge myself”. -SP

Interested in a new position?

Interested in a position, but not sure what it entails? Ask one of your senior staff members! You can also connect with your (A)RLM or a senior member from another team!

Before applying to any new position, make sure you have a conversation with your (A)RLM to ensure that you are right for the role. We have several different roles on campus that require different strengths and abilities, make sure you find the right one to apply for!

i want in! how to apply

Our application can be found on our residence life job opportunities website. The application is a statement of interest to return to Residence Life Staff. In January all returning applicants, regardless of the position for which you applied, will be asked to submit answers to specific questions as part of your application to return.

If you have applied to roles other than the current one you are in, you will also be contacted to arrange an additional interview in January.

You will be asked to rank the positions you are interested in applying for. You will be considered for the position that you are both qualified for, and interested in.

Applications are due December 19th, 2016.
what to expect for the interview

All staff wishing to return to Residence Life Staff are required to complete the returner application found online. It is important that you have discussed your intent to return to RLS with your Manager prior to applying.

Your manager will then be asked to complete a manager reference form, evaluating you on your overall performance this year. In completing this form, your manager will be taking in to consideration your student feedback, coaching conversations you have had, and your own self-reflections.

Your manager’s reference form, in addition to your response to the interview questions, will be used to determine your suitability to return to your position.

If you are applying for a position that is different than the one you currently have (for example, RA to Sr. RA, RA to DS, PF to Sr. PF, etc.), you will also be asked to complete an interview. Interview dates will depend on the positions for which you are applying:

- Sr. ALC, Sr. PF, PF, AP – Early January 2017
- Sr. RA, CA, POS – January 17th and 18th, 2017

You may be required to complete more than one interview depending on the number of positions you are being considered for.

Preference will be given to Sr. RA, CA, Sr. PF, Sr. AL and Duty Staff Lead Hand applicants who are available for both the fall and winter semesters.

If you are applying to be on Duty Staff (DS), Community Standards Assistant (CSA), or Seminar Facilitator (SF), you may be contacted in late January or early February about with an update on the interview process.
now what?

frequently asked questions

Why am I being asked to rank my preferred positions?

You will only be offered one position on Residence Life Staff, even if you apply for multiple. If you have applied to and qualify for multiple positions, you will be offered the position for which you indicate highest interest.

Why do I need to reapply for a role I already have?

All RLS are hired on an 8-12 month contract (depending on the role). We strive to hire staff who are going to create the best student experience for all of our residence students. As such, we expect all of our staff to perform to the best of their abilities. If job expectations have not been met, despite coaching from your manager, it may influence your ability to return to your role.

I would like to return to RLS in a different position however am unable to attend interviews during the scheduled time due to Co-op and/or Exchange.

If you are not available for the interview process due to your participation in co-op or exchange opportunities, please e-mail reslife@uoguelph.ca to coordinate a separate interview process.

I was hired for the Winter 2017 semester, do I apply as a new or returning staff?

If you have been recently hired for the Winter 2017 semester and are interested in holding a role on Residence Life Staff for Fall 2017 and Winter 2018, we ask that you apply as a Returning Staff. You will then be asked to follow up with your manager to discuss your performance and future positions on RLS. If you have any questions, please connect with your current manager.

Can I request to live, or work, in a specific building?

While we try to take specific needs into consideration, our primary goal is to create strong and well-balanced staff teams. All of our residence buildings provide the opportunity to engage with students and enhance their residence experience. If you require accommodation, you will be asked to indicate this to us after an employment offer has been made.

Do returning RLS members receive a pay increase?

Yes, all staff returning to the same position receive an increase in wage. This increase is dependent upon the number of years on staff in the same position. On average, if you are returning to the same role you can expect an increase of $50 per month for each year in that role. If you are on Duty Staff, are a Seminar Facilitator, or Community Standards Officer, your pay increase is reflected in your hourly wage and will vary between $0.50/hour to $1.00/hour depending on your position. Please refer to the job description for approximate amounts.
